

Industrial Compressor Field Service Technician

Job requirements:

- Have a basic knowledge of compressed air systems or strong knowledge of industrial equipment/electrical components.
- Ability to work mostly unsupervised to complete assignments with little to no outside supervision.
- Travel to customer sites with possibility of overnight travel and to work a reasonable amount of overtime to complete assignments as required.
- Establish and maintain a positive relationship with customers, vendors, and co-workers.
- Effectively communicate, verbally and in writing, with all levels of customers and co-workers.
- Basic PC and computer systems skills such as Word, Excel are essential.
- Employee must hold and maintain a safe driving record with valid driver's license.
- Use precision measuring tools for checking clearances; understands and uses electrical test equipment for all equipment.
- Work in a team oriented job that requires working and communicating well with fellow employees, customers, and vendors.
- Maintain knowledge of all operations and parts manuals associated with all equipment. Read prints and wiring schematics and diagrams for all equipment.
- Support service efforts by responding to customer and CTI requirements at any time, including weekends and holidays.
- Increase customer awareness of CTI's products including controls, PM packages, replacement parts for peripheral equipment, etc.
- Maintain daily work and expense records.
- Complete customer service and expense reports within 48 hours of the conclusion of jobs.
- Maintain company property, including vehicle and tools/equipment in safe operating order and maintain required records.
- While performing the duties of this job, the employee is required to stoop, kneel, bend, or crawl.
- The job requires frequent lifting of up to 50 lbs. and occasional heavy lifting up to 100 lbs.
- Prospect must pass pre employment and random drug screens.

Please send your resume to:

John Greer at jgreer@cen-tech-inc.com and Jim Puckett at jpuckett@cen-tech-inc.com